

Előadások

Bánhegyi Péter (MNB) – Sisakné Fekete Zsuzsanna (MNB) – Szabó Péter (KSH): Adjustment of domestic value added: Need for close cooperation between the National Bank and the Statistical Office

Kovács Péter (Szegedi Egyetem): Issues and challenges of statistical literacy in higher education

Laczka Éva (KSH): Integration of agricultural census and population data

Lengyel György (KSH): Agricultural Census 2010 in Hungary

Tardos Ágnes (MNB): How micro data can contribute to an extended macro statistical framework for the assessment of stability?

Role of Population and housing and agricultural censuses in the national statistical systems (STS 063 számú szekció)

Organizer and Chair: Éva Laczka

- Paper 1: Building a master sampling frame by linking the population and housing census with the agricultural census (Pietro Gennari, Naman Keita, Nancy Chin - FAO)
- Paper 2: Modern approach to censuses in the case of Poland – Advantages and constrains (Grazyna Marciniak – Lengyel Statisztikai Hivatal)
- Paper 3: A population census based on registers and a 10 % survey, Methodological challenges and conclusions (Antonio Argüeso, Jorge L. Vega – Spanyol Statisztikai Hivatal)
- Paper 4: The population and housing census in a register based system (Anita Lange – Dán Statisztikai Hivatal)
- Paper 5: Agricultural Census 2010 in Hungary (György Lengyel - KSH)
- Discussant: Janus Witkowski (Lengyel Statisztikai Hivatal)

Poszterek

Gerencsér Ákos: International merchandise trade statistics – is there a need for paradigmatic shift?

Kovács Benedek: Sleep time in the time use survey

Ritzlne Kazimír Ildikó: The undeclared value added due to the value added tax evasion of sole proprietors

Varsányi Tamás: The interest of society – The responsibility of statisticians